

THE BOOK
OF

TEXAS BESTS

KIRK DOOLEY

MARGARITA

JEWELER

AUTO RACE

HONKY TONK

BEST LONGHORN

BEST ALL-TIME FOOTBALL PLAYER

BEST BEACH

BEST TRUCK STOP

BEST FLAG

BEST CARNIVAL

FISHING

BEST CHICKEN-FRIED LOBSTER

BEST TRUCK STOP

BEST WINERY

BEST RANCH

BEST HAT

ORTHODONTIST

BEST AGGIE

FRATERNITY

POKER GAME

FOOD

BEST HOTEL

BEST SUPERMARKET

Irvine Ranch Farmers Market, Las Colinas

Known as a "food theater," this super-quality supermarket is famous for its array of the finest, freshest, and most exotic and delectable foods anywhere. Other locations can be found in Beverly Hills and Newport Beach in California. The Las Colinas store is bigger and better than Simon David, the runner-up.

BEST DENTIST

Dr. George Jarman, Dallas

This former University of Oklahoma football standout practices in the Park Cities area of Dallas and insists on doing all of his own lab work. Specializing in "painless dentistry," Jarman plays country music instead of Muzak in the office.

BEST CHAIN OF BOOKSTORES

Taylor's, Dallas-Fort Worth

Now located in Preston Center, North Dallas, Arlington, Fort Worth, and Casa Linda, this chain offers large selections and outstanding service. The complete bookstores; when no one else has it, Taylor's does.

BEST INDIVIDUAL BOOKSTORE

BOOKSTOP, on Shepherd in Houston

A converted movie theater that is chock-full of books. The browsing is the most interesting in Texas, as is the milieu.

BEST SADDLE

The Bob Kleberg Special

Fully handmade at the Running W Saddle Shop in Kingsville, it's a working cowboy's second-best friend.

BEST HAIRDRESSER

Paul Neinast, Dallas

This man has developed a statewide reputation the hard way — he's earned it.